

Middle School English Teacher

About Generations Christian Homeschool

Generations Christian Homeschool is a Christ-centered academic community partnering with families to provide strong academics, spiritual formation, and leadership development for students. We serve homeschool families through structured academic programs, discipleship, and community engagement while maintaining a biblical worldview in all we do.

Position Overview

This is a part-time contractor role for a dedicated Middle School English Teacher. The primary focus of this position is delivering high-quality English instruction, providing timely and constructive feedback on student writing, and supporting the holistic growth of students within our community.

Primary Responsibilities

- Teaching: Deliver the English curriculum to middle school students using a variety of instructional methods, including lectures, worksheets, and interactive lessons.
- Classroom Management: Create a positive learning environment and manage student behavior. This includes monitoring for destructive language and ensuring technology (computers) is used strictly for educational purposes.
- Student Assessment: Observe and evaluate student performance and development through the grading of assignments, essays, and tests.
- Student Progress: Track student growth and meet with students to help them reach their academic goals. As we operate as a homeschool support program, teachers serve as a resource to parents, who remain in charge of their child's education.

- Communication: Maintain consistent and effective communication with students, parents, and administration. All communication is guided by biblical principles of unity and conflict resolution as outlined in Matthew 18.
- Record Keeping: Use Google Classroom to post assignments and tests. Maintain organized, accessible records of student performance to facilitate parental inquiries.
- Role Modeling & Mentorship: Serve as an exemplar for students by embodying professionalism and the core values of Generations Christian Homeschool. Establish appropriate verbal, physical, and social boundaries with students at all times.

Specific Requirements

- Grading Timeline: Due to the nature of English coursework, all papers and essays must be graded and returned with feedback within 72 hours of submission.
- Professional & Spiritual Standards: Support the school's commitment to spiritual growth, which includes participating in weekly devotionals and fostering a culture of unity.
- Dress Code: Adhere to a modest and professional dress code. Tight-fitting clothing (including leggings) is prohibited; professional footwear is required (no Crocs or sandals without back straps); and jeans are permitted only on Fridays.

Qualifications

- A committed follower of Jesus Christ with a strong biblical worldview.
- Previous experience teaching Middle School English or a related field.
- Demonstrated ability to handle student feedback and grading with excellence and efficiency.
- Strong organizational and communication skills.
- Agreement with the school's mission and Statement of Faith.
- Bachelor's degree required.
